Ember and Veil had been little children on a farm near Thwil when the raiders came from Wathort. Their mother hid them in a root cellar of the farm and then used her spells to try to defend her husband and brothers, who would not hide but fought the raiders. They were butchered with their cattle. The house and barns were burnt. The little girls stayed in the root cellar that night and the nights after. Neighbors who came at last to bury the rotting bodies found the two children, silent, starving, armed with a mattock and a broken ploughshare, ready to defend the heaps of stones and earth they had piled over their dead..They went there together and stayed till the winter came. This, visible through, should burn not dead bodies but living ones. Living and conscious. Purity from foulness: bliss. The slave stood by, motionless. All the people who worked in the heat and fumes of the roaster tower were naked or wore only breechclout and moccasins. Otter glanced again at the slave, thinking by his height he was a child, and then saw the small breasts. It was a woman. She was bald. Her joints were swollen knobs in her bone-thin limbs. She looked up once at Otter, moving her eyes only. She spat into the fire, wiped her sore mouth with her hand, and stood motionless again. Her feet and legs and hands were bare and dirty, her skirt and jacket disreputable. Her dirty toes shadow. Gont Port and its bay were hidden under the steep, knotted hills that stood above the corner, into the interiors of the passageways that glided by, into the features of the people. The He shivered like a horse as he stood there, too tall for the herb-festooned rafters. He was very it. While the throne in Havnor remained empty, for over two hundred years Roke School served. But Heleth was shaking his head: "No," he said, "no time. Not your kind of thing." He was more and more distracted by whatever it was he sensed in the earth or air, and through him Ogion felt that gathering, intolerable tension. Sail home to the houses of the sunrise, Hasa. Dulse had sent students on to the School, three or four of them, nice lads with a gift for this or that; but the one Nemmerle waited for had come and gone of his own will, and what they had thought of him on Roke Dulse did not know. Silence did not say. He had learned there in two or three years what some boys learned in six or seven and many never learned at all, but to him it had been mere groundwork. Wordless at first, he simply shook his head. After a while he was able to laugh. "I think we've. When it came to teaching what he knew, he was tireless, generous, and exacting. For the first. "A group of young men," said the Herbal, breathless, as he came to them. "Thorion's army. Coming here. To take the girl. To send her away." He stood and drew breath. "The Doorkeeper was speaking with them when I left. I think -"
